

Syllabus for American History

Sessions 1-2: Thursdays 9:00-10:30

Educator: Jenni Buchanan, jenni@onesparkacademy.com

Google Class code: veb2qreo

Description: Students will learn about the founding of our country, from colonial settlement to the war for independence, and then the building of American society, culture, and our economy. They will trace the development of American institutions, founded on English parliamentary traditions, particularly the shaping of the Constitution. They will continue by studying the challenges facing a growing nation—including the rise of industrialization—and the causes, course, and consequences of the American Civil War.

Materials Needed:

- ☐ Spiral notebook or composition book dedicated to this class, and folder to keep handouts and returned homework. Students will have regular notebook checks throughout the session.
- ☐ Writing utensil

Expectations:

- * This is a hands-on class and students will need to be in attendance in order to get credit. (If an absence cannot be avoided the student can arrange to do makeup work during a study session.)
- * Students will be expected to take notes and to keep those notes and other handout materials neatly in their binder or folder. They will have regular notebook checks throughout the session and they must have their class notes & materials with them at every class.
- * As their final project, students will give a presentation on a specific subtopic of their choice.
